

REPORT CARRANZA SURROUNDED BY REBEL FORCES

Will be Given Time to Leave the Country

STATEMENT BY OBREGON

PASO, Texas, May 13.—President Carranza, of Mexico, is surrounded and in desperate straits at Rinconada, near Esperanza station, in the state of Pinal, according to a telegram from General Alvaro Obregon, received tonight by Roberto V. Pesteria, financial agent for the revolutionists here.

Instructions have been given to allow Carranza to leave the country in safety, General Obregon's message said.

"Carranza has not been made prisoner," the telegram, which is dated today, read. "He has been surrounded for the last few days, having fought at Rinconada, near Esperanza station, and I think he cannot stand much longer."

"Orders have been sent to the officers directing the attack that they notify Carranza that he can get out of the danger zone in order that his life may be spared, offering him a guard to escort him to Vera Cruz that he may leave the country and be free to go where ever he wishes."

"Colonel Orozco, noted for his criminal proclivities has been captured at sea by one of our naval units together with General Murguia."

"As to the shooting of prisoners, to which you refer, I can assure you that it is only newspaper talk, as we do not yet know the casualties on the enemy side."

(Signed), "A. Obregon."

General Plutarco Calles, revolutionary forces of the northwest, will arrive in Juarez, opposite the town of El Paso, tomorrow morning, according to an announcement tonight.

Lieutenant Colonel Lopez Lina, chief of state to General Jose Gonzalo Escobar, commander of the Chihuahua border military district.

It was expected here that General Calles would remain in Juarez a few days, and would then proceed southward toward Mexico City. Manuel Prieto, former mayor of Juarez, will accompany General Calles to the border, it was said.

President Carranza has used the nation's resources to suborn perjury and to issue a manifesto issued by General Obregon, at Chilpancingo, capital of Guerrero, April 29, copies of the document reached El Paso today.

Julio Cabrera, Carranza's secretary of the treasury, three days before leaving Mexico City, issued a statement that the president was not making a revolution at a "strike of soldiers," according to Benigno Valenzuela, publisher of El Monitor Republicano, an Obregon newspaper of Mexico City, who arrived here today.

Washington, May 13.—Reports from American and Mexican sources in Mexico appeared tonight to indicate that the revolutionists were settling into a position now from the uncertainty that still surrounds the fate of Carranza and reports of a military victory in a restricted area in the north.

Announcement was made by the revolutionary agents that the late revolutionary agent, Manuel Diezguerra, was a prisoner at Guadalajara, capital of Jalisco, and that Generals Hernandez, Mendez and Garza, military commanders in that area, had placed themselves and their forces at the orders of the revolutionary government.

Greater significance was attached by revolutionary agents to the capture of Diezguerra and to the breaking of the federal resistance program, than to the entry of General Palaz and Arnulfo Gomez into Tampico, reported in official dispatches.

The revolutionists have pronounced confidence that Palaz, de facto ruler of the oil region, would co-operate fully with the Carranza government.

With Jalisco officials line, they said, there remained but one step in the revolutionized area along the west coast that controls access to the important port at Manzanillo. American officials as well as revolutionists are carefully watching the development of federal strength northeast of Monterey, near the Mexican border.

BARNES CALLS HIGH OFFICIALS OF U. S. TO MEET NEXT WEEK

To Discuss Plans for Meeting
the Termination of Grain
Corporation

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Cabinet officers, members of congress and the Interstate Senate Commission and railroad officials have been invited by Julius H. Barnes, president of the U. S. Grain Corporation, to confer with him here on May 19 to discuss plans for meeting the situation resulting from the termination of the grain corporation on June 1.

"The approaching termination of three-year stabilizing influence of the grain corporation requires most earnest consideration," said Mr. Barnes. "America's grain marketing machinery and its large credit needs formerly dependent on the security afforded by hedging transactions in the great grain markets, the wheat direct or continued."

"These hedging markets will not be reinstated because of present hazards. The disorganization of the European forces, the purchase of their bread supplies by government officials, instead of thru private merchants whose thousands of differing opinions introduced a measure of cushioning against violent price fluctuations."

"A conference May 7 of 400 representatives of wheat handling and manufacturing trades, bankers and producers discussed this situation menacing not alone the grain handling but the credit structure of the country and the resulting possible agricultural demoralization."

"I cannot face termination of my office of wheat director without bringing these conditions to the attention of those who may devise steps for their correction. These difficulties center about inadequate transportation and disturbed credits are represented in widening trade margins affecting producers and consumers and possibly suspending the producer market entirely from time to time."

"No over-emphasis in my judgment can possibly be laid on the need of some corrective step."

WILSON VETOES BILL LIMITING EXECUTIVE POWER

Annual Appropriation Measures Sent Back to Congress

WASHINGTON, May 13.—President Wilson pointedly informed congress today that in his opinion the legislative branch of the government was showing an increasing tendency to interfere unduly with the exercise of executive functions.

Taking as a vehicle of his admonition, a sharply phrased veto of the annual legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, the president declared that one of the riders of the big supply measure would muzzle executive officials with a "censorship" regulated by the congressional joint committee on printing.

Immediately the president's position both on the general principle involved and the specific case cited was challenged by Republican leaders of the senate and house. Senator Smoot, Republican, chairman of the joint committee, declared in a formal statement that the president apparently had been "deliberately misinformed" about the appropriation bill, and Representative Good, Republican, Iowa, chairman of the house appropriation committee, told the house that "there must be some mistake somewhere."

Whether the repassage of the bill unchanged will be attempted or whether features objected to by the president will be eliminated had not been decided tonight. The measure carries $104,000,000 for salaries and miscellaneous expenses of many government departments and it must be approved in some form before the end of June or these funds will lapse.

The president also cited several other measures enacted or proposed in the present congress to support his charge that there had been "an invasion of the province of the executive calculated to result in unwarranted interference in the processes of good government." He said that some of these measures he had permitted to become law as temporary expedients, but that he felt the time had come to call a halt before "destructive" precedents had been established.

The section of the appropriation bill which led to the veto would prohibit the printing or mimeographing of any government publication except by authority of the joint committee. Such a provision, said the president, would give to the committee "power to determine what information shall be given to the people of the country by the executive departments."

While many of the roads were swamped with freight at junction points and big gateways, American railroad association officials said a perceptible improvement was evidenced by reports received from all sections.

There was no embargo on the movement of coal, livestock and perishables and these commodities had a preferential rating and right of way next to passenger train service, which thus far has not been affected. Government agencies in touch with the transportation system put forth every effort to help relieve the situation, admittedly bad, but not quite so bad as a week or ten days ago.

Chicago, May 13.—Deputy Sheriff Bill Biggs of Shelbyville, Ill., died in Huber Memorial hospital here last night of a gunshot wound, in the right temple, received Wednesday afternoon in a fight with a man here, while he was attempting to capture a fugitive.

Late Dayton, an escaped inmate of the state hospital for the insane at Jacksonville, Dayton had terrorized the town for three days, having patrolled the streets with a shotgun.

Sheriff Will Biggs and a Mr. Anderson of Stewardson were wounded in the hands. Dayton was shot in the back and captured. His wounds are not considered dangerous.

Farmer Confesses To Killing Seven People

WASHBURN, N. D., May 13.—Henry Layer, a farmer, has confessed to the killing of Jacob Wolf, his wife and five children and a chore boy, Jake Hofer, on the Wolf farm three miles west of Turtle Lake, N. D., on April 22, as announced here today by J. E. Williams, state's attorney for McLean county.

Ill feeling of long standing, culminating in a quarrel over injuries administered to Layer's cattle by Wolf's dog, was responsible for the crime, according to Layer's confession to Mr. Williams.

Layer, who is married and has six children and who owns a farm one and one half miles from the Wolf home, was arrested Tuesday night at his home. Today he was arraigned before Judge W. L. Nusselt, in district court here and sentenced to life imprisonment in the state penitentiary at Joliet. He was taken at once to Joliet to begin serving sentence.

According to Layer's alleged confession to State's Attorney Williams, Layer said he went to the Wolf farm shortly before noon on Thursday, April 22. Mr. Williams declared Layer said an argument followed and Wolf demanded that Layer leave the place at once. Layer refused, according to the alleged confession, and Wolf then took the gun, broke it in two, and threw the parts into a slough of the Wolf farm where it was later found.

Layer was charged with first degree murder and when arraigned before Judge Nusselt pleaded guilty. He was sentenced to hard labor for life and arrived at the prison at 4 p. m. today less than 48 hours after his arrest.

AGREE TO VOTE SATURDAY ON G.O.P. PEACE PLAN

Important Revision of the Measure is Made

WASHINGTON, May 13.—The senate agreed today to vote at 4 o'clock next Saturday on the Republican peace resolution. The arrangement followed an important revision of the measure by the Republican leadership in striking out the clause requesting the president to negotiate a separate peace treaty with Germany in order to "establish friendly relations and commercial intercourse."

Adoption of the resolution is conceded by Democratic opponents with a veto by President Wilson regarded as equally certain.

It proposes to repeal war declarations with both Germany and Austria, while the house dealt with Germany alone and differed radically also in other respects.

General indisposition of senators to discuss the resolution led to today's agreement for final action Saturday, in which party leaders concurred. The resolution was laid aside today after addresses in its support by Senators Kellogg, of Minnesota and Lenroot, of Wisconsin. Republican members of the "solid reservation" group in the treaty fight.

Both senators criticized President Wilson charging him with delaying peace by his position on the treaty and predicting Republican success in the November campaign if the treaty issue were carried into the campaign as he had urged.

During the debate another Democrat, Senator King, of Utah, came out in opposition to the president's position on the treaty issue.

Senator Pomerene, Democrat, of Ohio, is the only speaker scheduled tomorrow.

An inquest was held at Jacksonville State hospital yesterday by Coroner Rose over the remains of Henry Prang who has been a patient at the hospital for many years. Recently Prang quarreled with another patient, Lee Burnett, over some difficulty and Burnett kicked him in the abdomen. Death resulted some time later. The jury after hearing the evidence declared that death was occasioned by general peritonitis which followed the rupture of a small intestine.

So far as known the man, who was brought here from Elgin, had no relatives.

The jury included S. L. Perry, foreman; W. W. Walker, H. G. Cully, J. R. Kirkman, E. F. Hatfield and E. W. Craig. The witnesses examined were Ernest Perry, Chilesa Brewer, John Will, Dr. Murray and Dr. F. W. McKelvey.

Chicago, May 13.—The Illinois homeopathic medical association, in annual convention met on record today, opposing compulsory health insurance legislation.

Dr. Theodore Bachmeister, secretary of the organization, urged the doctors to organize along lines similar to labor organizations, not to raise prices but to protect themselves from "pernicious legislation," he said.

In England 17,000 of the 25,000 doctors are absolutely controlled by the government," he said. "If the same situation will arise here if state medical legislation is carried out."

Dr. G. W. Dienst, of Aurora, Ill., urged that the principles of homeopathy be spread among the laymen.

Chicago, May 13.—A record price of $17,700 for a Guernsey cow was paid today at the competition sale of Guernsey cattle, held at the farm of E. B. Maltby, at Midlothian, Ill., in connection with the annual meeting yesterday of the American Guernsey Cattle club. The cow, Imp. Prospects, Rose Des Houards, was owned by W. W. Marsh, of Waterloo, Ia., and was purchased by Fred J. Reupling, of Fon Du La, Wis. The highest previous price was $12,500, paid a year ago for Folly and Nancy.

THE USUAL WAY

Carranza has followed the custom of his predecessors in at least one detail. He has taken government funds with him and it remains to be seen what will become of the $13,500,000 that he has in his possession but which belongs to the Mexican people.

SOON DISHEARTENED

The mayor in a southern city resigned after he had held the job for 24 hours. That city has not suffered a severe loss, for a public official who is thoroughly discouraged and ready to give up the ship at ter one day's service is not a man of courageous heart.

IT WOULD HELP

The city officials of St. Louis believe that a compulsory voting law should be adopted in that state. Thirteen out of eighteen bond proposals were defeated in the recent election and the records show that not one-half the population voted, although a vigorous publicity campaign was waged before the election. They believe that with a full representative vote the result would have been different.

THE GROWTH OF WORLD INTEREST

Every big newspaper and press association lean now to foreign correspondence to a far greater degree than was true a few years ago. It is easy to find the reason. As a result of the world war cities and countries thousands of miles away became places of interest to the average citizen. To many readers these places were practically unknown.

Then came the war, with American participation and millions of young Americans transported to the other side. The interest in distant lands came quickly and although the war is over and most of the soldiers have returned the interest is maintained.

FOR THE COMMON GOOD

The Civic Pride league has been organized in Jacksonville and the movement is under way to make this the cleanest and healthiest city in Illinois. It is co-operative effort and its benefits that will be more than physical. The interest of the people, the desire on their part to make conditions better and brighter in their home city, is the basic thought.

Community spirit is the foundation stone and it is indeed a fortunate fact that a fine community spirit exists here today. That 30 or 40 women have entered heartily into the movement means that it will succeed, for men and women will work with them, understanding, as they will, that the whole effort is for the common good.

A SANE VIEW OF THE SITUATION

In another part of this paper appears the main paragraphs from an able article on "Profiteering and Prices" presented by Mr. Copeland in the Atlantic Monthly. It is interesting, to say the least, to note that a student of financial and economic conditions passes by the usual theories that retailers and wholesalers are responsible for the present period of high prices. Mr. Copeland goes into the subject more deeply and finds as the cause of present conditions the financial system of the government. A reading of this article gives assurance too that while present times are difficult, that there are good reasons to believe that the readjustment is taking place now and that conditions more nearly normal will be restored without disaster.

So Mr. Copeland sounds a certain note of business optimism as he suggests that while the present tight situation may become tighter and with the resulting inconvenience, that the slowing up processes were begun in time and that neither capital nor labor need suffer.

called on men and brothers to come and strike with me, and set their dads and mothers from tyrants' shackles free. And all the boys responded, and quit their useful tasks, grow whiskers many-fronced, and yawned from kegs and casks. Like me, they called on workers to throw their handsaws down, and join the ranks of shirkers who thronged the idle town. And so our graft kept spreading, and ran us all in debt and very few were treading the paths where toilers sweat. I sat, with other pumpkins, around the Blue Front store, and no one grew two pumpkins where but one grew before. And no one plowed a furrow, or made an anvil ring, or came out from his burrow, to laugh and dance and sing. But all were talking sorrow, and pessimism black, and swearing that tomorrow would see our bulwarks crack. And now I'm tired of striking. I need some iron men and gladly I'd go hiking to make things hum again.

ROOMS NEEDED FOR INTERSCHOLASTIC

Nearly five hundred high schools boys and girls will be guests of Illinois College for the interscholastic contests today and tomorrow. These students come to take part in declamation, oratory, musical and athletic contests.

In the past the college has taken care of the students who came to take part in the various events. However, the interscholastic has grown to such proportions that the college students are unable to handle it.

Therefore it is necessary to call upon citizens of the city to assist in taking care of the large number of visitors. Many of these boys and girls will probably become students here their visit to the college for the contests.

That will mean a benefit in the future to both college and city. It is desired that all who have rooms they are willing to rent or donate for sleeping purposes notify the college office, 454 on either phone, between the hours of 8 and 5 o'clock today, of the number they can care for.

Jacksonville has never been found wanting in hospitality. The college officials believe she will arise to the emergency. Unless there is a generous response there will be many visitors who will be without a place to sleep tonight and Saturday night.

MISS TOWNE NOW BRIDE OF FRED SPIETH

Pretty Wedding Rite at Country Home of Bride's Parents Thursday.

At noon Thursday the marriage of Miss Angeline Towne and Mr. Frederick Spieth was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Towne, southeast of the city. The service was performed by Rev. P. J. Hasenstab of Chicago assisted by Rev. T. H. Tull, pastor of Grace M. E. church of this city.

Relatives and intimate friends made up the company of interested witnesses. Little Wilhelmina Spieth was the ring bearer and the ministers used the impressive double ring service.

The bride is a graduate of the academy of Asbury College at Wilmore, Ky., and was later a student at Central Holiness University at Oskaloosa, Iowa, and also at the Chicago evangelistic institute. In character and spirit she is an altogether admirable young woman. Mr. Spieth who is associated with his brother, Otto Spieth, in the photographic business, is one of the well known young men of the city. He was in the overseas service of the army during the war period and today has the good opinion of all who know him.

After the ceremony and the extending of congratulations the wedding dinner was served in a generous way. The Towne home had been prettily decorated for the day and the wedding arrangements were all of a kind to make the nuptial event memorable in the lives of the young people and their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Spieth left on a late afternoon train for a short wedding journey and after June 1st will be at home to their friends at 119 West College avenue.

Among the guests in the wedding company were George W. Towne of Normal, Mrs. Christ Spieth, mother of the groom, from Tigertown, Wis.; Mrs. T. H. Tull, Jacksonville; the Misses Grace and Constance Hasenstab of Chicago; Otto Spieth and family; Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hopper; R. J. Davis and Mrs. Hubert of White Hall; Mrs. T. J. THE MIKADO IS ARTISTIC SUCCESS

Famous Gilbert and Sullivan Work Given by Illinois College Chorus and Glee Clubs—Opera Was Well Received by Large Audience.

An unqualified success was the Mikado, Gilbert and Sullivan's famous comic opera, presented at the Grand Thursday evening by the Illinois College chorus, combined Glee clubs and the Conservatory orchestra.

Singing the score of the Mikado is an ambitious undertaking for amateurs. It is one of the best of the Gilbert and Sullivan's works and its music, tho tuneful, at times reaches the heights of grand opera and it requires more than ordinary ability to sing the various numbers.

The work of the cast and chorus last evening was all that could be desired. The interpretations were intelligent and given with a fine sense of artistic values. All of the members of the cast and chorus are students of the Conservatory. In addition to the excellence of the musical numbers the acting was of a high order and the work of the chorus was especially commendable. The staging was under the direction of Mrs. Winifred Kates James and the perfectly welded performance speaks well of her ability as a director. In fact one is surprised that so much could be imparted to such a large cast in the brief period that she has been at work.

The conservatory orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Munger, did excellent work. Mr. Munger had a keen conception of the various numbers and handled the large orchestra in masterly fashion, and the players and singers responded readily to every beat of the baton.

George Gunn, as the Mikado, sang his numbers with splendid force and he looked the part as well.

Charles H. Keep, who took the role of Nanki-Poo on short notice, was in excellent voice and his work throughout was all that could be desired. The role is a heavy one, yet he was equal to every demand made upon him.

Charles Capps, as Ko-Ko, carried this comedy role in a manner that left nothing to be desired. He was especially good in his duets with Katisha.

Poo-Bah was played by Robert Shoemaker. This part has several numbers that served to show Mr. Shoemaker's voice to good advantage and he was frequently applauded for his efforts.

Pish-Tush was played by Carlyle Antrobus. Mr. Antrobus had a very clever conception of the role and in both singing and acting was never at fault.

Miss Edna Hackett made a charming Yum-Yum. She not only looked the part, but sang the various numbers beautifully. The role is one that requires not only singing, but acting ability, and Miss Hackett has both to a marked degree.

Pitti-Sing was taken by Miss Lorine Dewesse. She had a great deal of work to do during the evening and her song numbers were given with musically understanding.

Miss Ruth Melba Armstrong played the part of Katisha. This role is one that requires much ability, especially in histrionic work. Miss Armstrong had a fine conception of the role and her work was excellent throughout. Her voice was well suited to the musical numbers and she was a favorite with the large audience.

The stage settings and costumes were in keeping with the atmosphere of the opera and aided greatly to the rounding out of a perfect performance. The cast and members of the chorus and orchestra and the song numbers are given in the following list:

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE IN KATCHA-KOO CAST

Rehearsals Give Promise of Excellent Productions at the Opera House May 19-20 Under Loyal Legion Auspices.

A real treat is in store for Jacksonville and surrounding territory on May 19 and 20, when Katcha-Koo, an Oriental American musical comedy, will be presented. The play will be given under the auspices of the American Legion at the Grand Opera house, and it is the declaration of those who know that the production will be one of the very best ever witnessed locally.

Katcha-Koo is a clever combination of Oriental mysticism and present day patriotism. There are beautiful costumes and a number of clever dances, while in every scene there is a host of pretty girls. Among the dances will be the Polo dance, the Veil dance and the Auld Lang Syne group dance. The closing feature will be a tableau, "Liberty Aflame," which is said to be one of extraordinary beauty and meaning.

The role of Katcha-Koo, a fakir, is taken by Leonard Potter while F. B. Mauck performs as the Maharajah. The latter's four wives are Misses Florea Short, Helen Strandberg, Sarah Martin and Mrs. Johnson. Others of the principals are Mrs. H. Breed, Mrs. Codrington, Miss Hastings, Miss Esther Davis, Felix Farrell and Harry Cowgur. A dance by Miss Willella Miller and Mr. Merryman will be one of the features of the program.

PARTY FOR MISS HATFIELD
Miss Katherine Hatfield, whose marriage to Mr. Fred R. Main of St. Louis, is to be solemnized at an early date, was the guest of honor recently at a linen shower given at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. Rex Shaw on East State street. The company included intimate friends of the bride to be and each brought a package containing something useful for the new home soon to be established.

Little Mary Katherine Shaw, niece of the guest of honor, brought in the packages and from each one was taken "a bit of advice" for Miss Hatfield. The reading of the slips added both to the merriment and pleasure of the occasion. Excellent refreshments were served and the event was delightful in every respect.

FINANCIAL SYSTEM HIGH PRICE BASIS

This Interesting Issue of the Atlantic Monthly by Melvin T. Copeland in the Atlantic Monthly.

In the current issue of the Atlantic monthly Melvin T. Copeland has an informing article on "The Theory of Prices." The opening paragraphs deal with the generally accepted theory that the profiteering is done by the wholesalers and the retailers. Mr. Copeland takes the view that except in a small number of cases that these charges are not true. The theory advanced is that the real cause of high prices can be found in the existing financial system and the inflation due to it.

System began in 1914

The Federal Reserve system began operations in 1914. From July 1, 1914, to July 1, 1919, the amount of currency in circulation in the United States increased $2,440,000,000, or 11 per cent. The annual rate of increase in currency in circulation during these years was five times as rapid as during the fifteen years prior to 1914, which also was a period of generally rising prices. The main additions to our currency have been in the form of Federal Reserve notes. These notes, or paper money, are issued on the basis of credit granted by the Federal Reserve banks, which rediscount borrowers' notes for other banks. There has been also an increase in deposits resulting from loans—another form of credit inflation.

In order to finance the war, the United States government did not issue paper money directly, as was done to excess in most of the European countries. Yet the issue of paper money was stimulated indirectly by inducing the Federal Reserve banks to give especially favorable terms for credit based on government bonds. The bonds became the security for the issue of Federal Reserve notes. The amount of currency in circulation was increased without a corresponding increase in the quantity of merchandise produced. More currency and no more goods had meant higher prices. The Federal Reserve Board also permitted a large expansion of credit and currency by its liberal terms for rediscounts on ordinary commercial loans. The policy of the government in financing the war may have been the wisest one to follow. Nevertheless, the fact remains that, in the United States, as well as in Europe, inflation is at the bottom of a large portion of our price troubles and is one of the chief causes of widespread social unrest.

An Example in Inflation
To show how inflation works, take the following example, stated in its simplest terms:

A shoe manufacturer in the ordinary course of business goes to bank for a loan. The amount that the bank will lend him is strongly influenced by his net assets, especially by the value of the materials and merchandise on hand, cash, and the amount of sound debts owed him by his customers, as compared with his current liabilities. With the proceeds of the loan received from the bank, the manufacturer buys raw material and hires labor. If it is easy for him to secure the loan, because of the ability of the bank to rediscount his notes at the Federal Reserve bank at a low rate of interest, the manufacturer does not hesitate to bid up the market for materials and to offer higher wages to secure workmen. The higher the prices paid for materials and labor, the greater is the value that is placed on his stock on hand when he seeks the next loan. Such credit, granted leniently, because of the opportunity of the bank to turn round and borrow from the Federal Reserve bank at a low rate of interest, has rolled up prices like a snow ball.

Th amount of credit granted on any particular occasion depends in large measure upon existing prices. Yet as soon as the credit is granted, it immediately tends to increase prices by placing new buying power in the hands of the party who has received the loan. In other words, the statement that the increase in currency and credit has been the result of high prices is based on a fallacious and oft-exploited theory. Inflation is the cause, not the result. By granting loans without proper restraint, moreover, inflation increases until banking resources can stand the strain no longer, and the bubble bursts. Several of the worst commercial crises in the past have resulted from inflation.

Eastern Bank Action
In November, 1919, the Federal Reserve banks at New York—the pivotal point—and at Boston, began to increase their rediscount rates. This indicated that the Federal Reserve board was attempting to check inflation and resulted immediately in bringing down the prices of securities in the stock market. But up to the beginning of February, 1920, no effect on commodity prices had been shown. Another substantial increase in rediscount rates was made on January 23, 1920. It remains to be seen whether still more drastic action is necessary to curtail the demand for commercial loans, unless in the meantime a crisis is precipitated by other forces. At all events, the action of the Federal Reserve banks, even if somewhat belated, is a sound public policy.

A FEARFUL STORM
James Breckon of this city has received a letter from his cousin, Ben Breckon of near Douglass, Wyoming telling of a fearful storm that prevailed in that region April 17th, 18th and 19th. It was a cold blizzard and did enormous damage. One man lost 125 cattle and one lost 350, while others sustained smaller losses. There was much wide spread suffering in the locality.

IT'S the man of farsight and vision that turns the conditions of today to his future advantage. The dollar of today looks mighty small in relation to its buying power and most of us are getting a sufficient number of those dollars to meet our current cost of living and few dollars over. But the days are not far off when that dollar will grow in purchasing power and when it does the dollars will not be so plentifully or generously circulated. The man who saves those little dollars now and puts them away in a safe Savings Bank will find they have grown tremendously in importance and usefulness when dollars are scarcer and when the spendthrifts and improvident have carelessly failed to conserve against future opportunity and need.

Now is the time to save—now while the dollars are easy to get. You cannot "eat your cake and have it too." So let's save the cake for a time when it will be most substantial and harder to procure.

Save those little 1920 dollars. They'll be mighty big dollars in 1925, or before.

I worried and worried about that eruption on my face. Of course I thought it must have come from my blood until Sybel told me differently.

"Poor blood, my dear! No, not necessarily. Today specialists trace few skin troubles to the blood. Germs that fly about everywhere creep into the pores along with dust and dirt. They thrive because the skin is not properly nourished.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR TO GO TO SPRINGFIELD

Will Attend Ascension Day Services There Sunday—Arrangements Made For Special Train.

Members of Hospitalier Commandery No. 31 will go to Springfield Sunday to take part in ascension day services along with other templars in various Illinois cities. A special train over the Wabash will convey the local knights leaving at 11 a. m. and returning at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. While the train has been arranged for by Knights Templar persons not members of the order who wish to do so may make the trip.

Last year the services were held in Aurora and a very large company of knights assembled. It is believed that this record will be equalled in Springfield as that city is more accessible than Aurora. Officers from the grand commandery of the state will be present and take part in the program which will be given at the state arsenal at 3 o'clock. The parade will take place at 2 o'clock.

It was originally the intention of local knights to make the trip by automobiles but because of heavy rain it was decided to make arrangements for the special train. The local committee, Julius Strawn, Dr. R. R. Buckhorpe and William Crawley.

The program at the arsenal will be as follows:
Hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers."
Invocation.
Anthem, "Before Jehovah's Awful Throne"—Masonic Male Chorus.

OBITUARY

John Lee Scott was born Jan. 21, 1865, near Pleasant Plains, Ill. He was a son of Francis M. and Mary Brockman Scott, and he and his brothers and sisters were born on the farm upon which their pioneer grandfather, Dallas Scott, settled after coming to Illinois from Kentucky a century ago.

Mr. Scott's education was commenced at a country school near Pleasant Plains and was continued at the high school of Springfield, an Indiana normal school, and the Universities of Illinois and Michigan. While attending high school he became engaged to Miss Emma Barker, a classmate, to whom he was afterwards married, and by whom he is survived, with their daughters, Jessie, wife of Orville C. Smith of Mt. Vernon, Ill., and Mary E. wife of M. Everett Wells of Divernon, Ill.

At the age of 19 Mr. Scott began his career as a teacher, having charge of a school near Pleasant Plains. He has been identified with educational work ever since then, coming to Springfield high school in 1905 as teacher of mathematics. For two years he was an instructor at Illinois Business College, and afterward served one year as assistant principal and one year as principal at Central Junior high school. He had been elected assistant principal of the Senior high school, but his illness prevented him from taking up the duties of this position.

He was affiliated with St. Paul Lodge No. 509, A. F. & A. M., Springfield Chapter No. 1, R. A. M., Elwood Commandery No. 6, K. T. and Ansar Temple. He also was a member of the Court of Honor and was a director in Boy Scouts Council of Springfield.

In religious life Prof. Scott was an ordained minister of the Primitive Baptist church and was pastor of the Salem Sugar Creek congregation.

The brothers and sisters left behind, all of whom are present today, are George D. Scott of Lampasas, Texas; J. H. Scott of Jacksonville, Ill.; Eugene B. Scott of Pleasant Plains; Dr. Travis M. Scott of Petersburg, Ill.; Miss Anna Scott of Pleasant Plains, and Mrs. Amy (Scott) Lyons of El Centro, Calif.

Prof. Scott's release from sickness and suffering came on Sunday morning, May 9, at 2 o'clock. He had been ill for more than a year.

It was a gracious act on the part of the brethren of the three links.

The VANITY

The Spat Pump—a Creation

Women with proud high insteps are finding just what they want in this new spat pump. The spat is just a bud at its throat, yet this little insert relieves strain where strain was felt; it furnishes a backing for ornaments against the jet-black patent leather; and it alters a simplicity some thought too severe. Suitable for all occasions. A Walk-Over—tailored to fit you perfectly. Call and notice how well your instep looks above this high Louis heel.

A GENEROUS MAN

Very pleasant stories are told of Marshall Field the III, the young man who will one day inherit, if he lives, the huge fortune of his grandfather and who now enjoys an enormous income from the share of the estate in the great business. A gentleman from Chicago, a man intimately acquainted with the young man says he served gallantly in the great world war, going in in a humble capacity and coming out as captain. He puts in his time in the employment bureau for returned soldiers and sees to it that they get positions which they may keep if they make good.

Any time he sees one who served in the great war needing anything, his hand goes into his pocket at once if he is satisfied the man is worthy. He is not an easy mark for any one who comes along but has an idea of the true value of a dollar and tries to use his wealth discreetly.

HAROLD M'GINNIS IN HEROIC ACT

Former Resident Now in Air Service Saves Self and Companion and Airplane — Makes Safe Landing with Plane in Flames.

The Peoria Star of Sunday, May 9, carried a story of the feat of Lieutenant Harold A. McGinnis in making a safe landing in a blazing airplane on April 22 at Bolling field.

Lieut. McGinnis is now judge advocate at the field. On the date mentioned he was flying in a DH-4 airplane with Capt. L. N. Keesling as a passenger.

At an altitude of 5,000 feet the plane burst into flames. Lieut. McGinnis with rare coolness and judgment put the plane into a side slip and landed safely saving his life and that of his passenger and also saving the plane. The department correspondence relative to the matter follows:

From Jacob E. Fickel, Major, U. S. A.

To Administrative Executive, Subject: Commendation of Second Lieut. H. A. McGinnis.

"1. Second Lieut. H. A. McGinnis was pilot of a DH-4 airplane, carrying Captain L. N. Keesling as passenger on April 22, 1920, at Bolling Field, which caught fire at an altitude of about 5,000 feet. He put the plane into a steep side slip and made a perfect landing, saving not only his passenger and himself but also the plane.

"Owing to an accident at the other end of the flying field, which had drawn practically everyone to that place, I believe I was one of the few spectators of his landing. I think that his action was one of the best examples of cool headedness I have ever seen. Flames were shooting out of the engine compartment of the fuselage from one to three feet high. It would have needed only the slightest lapse of presence of mind to have caused the loss of the passengers and plane. His landing was as smooth and careful as it is possible to make.

"3. I believe that Lieut. McGinnis is worthy of the highest commendation for his cool judgment and nerve fight to the finish."

And the following:
"War Department, O. D. A. S., April 24, 1920.—To Second Lieut. H. A. McGinnis, office, Director of Air Service, Washington, D. C.

"1. The matter covered above was reported to the Director of Air Service from other sources. The director concurs in the statement of Major Fickel that Lieut. McGinnis' action in this case is worthy of the highest commendation."

By direction of the Director of Air Service: Wm. F. Pearson, Colonel, A. S. A., Administrative Executive.

CIVIC PRIDE LEAGUE READY FOR WORK

Purposes Made Clear at City Hall Conference—Hope For Cleaner Conditions Thru Co-operative Effort.

The Civic Pride league was set in motion yesterday and will begin an organized campaign to accomplish its ideal of "The cleanest and healthiest city in Illinois." Ward captains and their workers met at the city council rooms Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock in conference with Mayor Crabtree, Alderman Cain and Street Commissioner Perry J. White.

Mayor Crabtree gave a brief outline of what he believes the league can accomplish in Jacksonville in cleaning up yards, streets and alleys. Some literature sent out by the "Cleanup and Paint Up" campaign bureau was exhibited and pamphlets were distributed to give the workers a better idea of what has been attempted and accomplished thru similar campaigns in other cities.

It was made very clear yesterday that it is not the idea to make this a spasmodic effort—one to last thru a short period. The idea is to have the Civic Pride league, a permanent organization, continuing thru all the months of the year. Mrs. Keith Montgomery and Mrs. J. W. Clary are the directors. Each ward has been divided into two districts and the captains and a number of workers appointed in each district. It is the purpose thru this organization to foster a desire on the part of all citizens to keep their own premises clean and slightly and to give their aid in bringing about the same conditions in the streets and alleys of the city.

It is proposed to bring about these conditions by suggestion and education rather than by any legal means at hand.

Mayor Crabtree was careful in his address to impress the assembled workers with his belief that the great majority of people will be heartily in accord with the movement and ready to join in it, if they are familiarized with the purpose of the organized effort and the methods that will be followed.

Co-operative Work.

Mayor Crabtree said that the Civic Pride league was simply another effort resulting from the spirit of co-operation. "The city hasn't the money to do everything desirable," the mayor said, "and so we must accomplish some things thru the generous co-operative effort of citizens. Thru the Civic Pride league I believe we can accomplish things that would not be possible merely with the expenditure of money. We can awaken public interest in this program of making the city healthier and cleaner, and from this public interest and enthusiasm will come cleaner yards, streets and alleys."

"The weed patches in vacant lots will become things of the past and gardens of vegetables or flowers will take their place. In the course of time the movement will bring about the removal of unsafe or unsanitary buildings. The doing away with rubbish will lessen fire risks, and you can readily understand as you study this movement that it has possibilities along many lines."

The Public Will Help.

After the whole subject had been presented with its many-sided possibilities, there came a time for questions. A number of the workers suggested that the way to begin would be to have their own premises in condition beyond criticism and then to take note of conditions about them. That was the consensus of opinion that publicly—an understanding of the purposes of the movement—will help greatly in bringing about the cleaner conditions, and that there will be no lack of public interest.

The workers will proceed with the campaign in a way at once enthusiastic and tactful, confident in having men and women and children glad to co-operate. Another meeting will be held in the course of the next two weeks. The captains and workers as chosen by the directors are as follows:

Directors—Mrs. Keith Montgomery, Mrs. John Clary.

First Ward, No. 1—Mrs. A. W. Becker, captain; Miss Minnie Keating, Mrs. Mae Pease, Miss Nettie Engel, Miss Hulda Faugust.

No. 2—Mrs. John Meany, captain; Mrs. William Day, Miss Kate Fanning, Miss Lillie Lonergan, Miss Mae Hahn.

Second Ward, No. 1—Mrs. Clarence Reid, captain; Mrs. W. L. Shibe, Mrs. Jerry Cox, Mrs. W. F. Widmayer, Mrs. Eb Spink.

No. 2—Mrs. Ed D. Canatsey, captain; Mrs. Fletcher Blackburn; Mrs. H. J. Capps, Mrs. Tillman Stout.

Third Ward, No. 1—Mrs. P. J. Shanahan, captain; Mrs. S. M. Foley, Mrs. J. D. Cain, Mrs. George Fuhr, Miss Margaret Sheehan.

No. 2—Mrs. John F. Buckley, captain; Mrs. Fred Randall, Mrs. James Strawn, Mrs. Elinor Snyder, Mrs. John Doyle.

MISS NORA YOUNG WEDS OKLAHOMA MAN

Former Conservatory Student Has Kept Story of Marriage Event Secret Since Christmas.

The marriage of Miss Nora Evelyn Young, a student at Illinois Conservatory of Music, to Mr. J. L. Pullen was solemnized some time since at Guthrie, Okla. The wedding took place at Christmas time but announcement has been only recently made. The following account of the wedding is taken from the Davis (Okla.) News:

A wedding which took place last Christmas and has just become known will be a big surprise and of much interest to Davis citizens. The contracting parties were Mr. Jess L. Pullen of this city and Miss Nora Evelyn Young of Sulphur. The wedding took place in Guthrie. It is considered quite remarkable that the young people have kept their marriage a secret so long. We are told by the groom that even his parents will not know of the happy event until they read about it in this paper.

The bride is a charming and popular young lady of Sulphur, and is cultured in music and voice. She has gained considerable prominence as a vocalist of ability. Two or three years ago she gave a voice recital in the Baptist church in this city. She has been attending the Illinois Conservatory of the past year and finishes there in June.

The groom is a son of Hon. and Mrs. G. W. Pullen of Davis. He graduated from the Davis high school, followed the teaching profession a year or two, and is now attending the State University. He is a candidate for Representative from Murray county, which honorable position his father formerly held. He was born and raised in Davis and is held in high esteem by his many Davis friends to whom his entire life is an open book.

Mr. and Mrs. Pullen will make their home in Davis and will do light housekeeping this summer while the campaign is in full swing.

Their many Davis friends congratulate them on the step they have taken and wish them a full measure of life's happiness and prosperity.

A LONG TIME ODD FELLOW.

Yesterday L. Goheen called to mind the fact that March 3, 1879 QCapt. J. M. Swales, Herman Weir, George Brady, Mr. Jaeger himself and three others whose names he was unable to recall joined Urania lodge, No. 243, I. O. F.

—we gleaned from the sunny spots

UNUSUAL care is required in the selection of flour this spring.

Much of the grain from which it is milled is not fully matured. Lack of sunshine prevented ripening when the crop was in the field.

A few favored spots, however, produced wheat of the unusual fineness.

is ground from that grain alone. No other is even considered, tho we are forced this year to pay a very high premium for every bushel we buy.

As a result, Valier's Enterprise flour stands out more prominently than ever. It continues to produce the same delicious, reliable baking which has distinguished it in the past.

Altho flour of such quality must cost slightly more per sack, it is economical in the end. The difference is repaid many times before the bottom of the sack is reached by better, more uniform baking and

Farm Bureau Notes

Shearing Demonstrations

C. W. Crawford, extension sheep specialist of the Bureau of Animal Industry, will give four of these Monday and Tuesday, May 17 and 18. At the spraying demonstrations Monday C. E. Drake, of Chapin, asked that one be given near Chapin. At this writing this is the only demonstration arranged. C. L. Hawker will quite likely arrange for a demonstration in the country near Nortonville. Where docking and castrating has not already been done demonstrations along these lines will also be given.

Duroc Breeders Talk Organization

When the Morgan County Breeders association was organized, provision was made in the constitution for the organization of separate breed associations, as interest developed. The Duroc breeders think that the time is here for a Duroc Breeders association and have invited the secretary of the Illinois Duroc Breeders association, W. V. Goussier, of Peoria, to come here at an early date and assist the local men in organizing. He has been asked to come the week of May 24th.

Pig Club Work

H. F. Wolter, of the state leader's office, has written the county agent that he will spend two days in Morgan county, assisting in organizing a Morgan County Pig club. He has scheduled May 19 and 20 for that visit. In all probability the names of the boys and girls will be enrolled by that time and Mr. Wolter will only assist in putting the work on a stable basis.

Grain Marketing Meeting

William G. Eskhardt has written to us in regard to meeting in this congressional district. He wants to know what town may be most conveniently reached by people from Brown, Jersey, Mason, Menard, Morgan, Pike and Scott. The following will be invited to attend these meetings:

1. Members of the executive committee, Illinois Agricultural association.
2. Directors of Illinois Agricultural association.
3. County agent and assistant.
4. Manager, president, and secretary of farmers elevators.
5. President and secretary of farm bureaus.
6. Five or six bankers.

Hessian Fly

At this date nearly all of the spring brood of the Hessian fly have emerged in the central and southern Illinois. The cool wet weather and high winds of the past three weeks have prevented this brood from spreading or from laying eggs to the extent that would have been the case had the weather been favorable to the fly at the time of their emergence.

Fly began coming out in southern Illinois on April 9th, in the south-central part of the state April 18th; and in the central counties the 22nd and 23rd. Some flies are still emerging but their numbers are so small that the eggs laid by them will not count in the amount of damage done this spring.

Most of the letters received this spring with regard to the fly infestation have contained in substance the following questions which I am endeavoring to answer:

1. Is the infestation by the spring brood serious in fields that were early sown and infested last fall? In the south end of the state such early sown fields are from 1 per cent to 25 per cent infested by the spring brood. In the south-central part of the state the infestation is somewhat higher, and will probably range from 35 per cent to 75 per cent. In the central portion, due to the fact that about 50 per cent of the fly emerged last week when weather conditions were more favorable for egg laying, fields sown early and heavily infested last fall show from 75 per cent to 100 per cent infestation by the spring brood.

2. Is the fly present in such fields to the extent that it will be unprofitable to allow the wheat to stand? Judging by past experience with similar infestation at this time of year, we can expect in the southern end of the state at least a 2 per cent to 5 per cent reduction in the yield from the effect of the spring brood of the fly. In the south-central part of the state from 7 per cent to 15 per cent reduction. In central Illinois from 15 per cent to 20 per cent reduction.

3. Has the fly spread from the infested to the uninfested fields this spring, and to what extent? In the south and south-central part of the state there has been very little spread from the fields infested last fall to those uninfested. In the central section the spread has been somewhat greater, and many of the late sown fields show from 50 per cent to 6 per cent of the plants with eggs of the Hessian fly.

In the northern section of the state the fly has just begun to emerge, and the extent of the spring infestation cannot yet be told. The figures given apply to parts of the state where most of the winter wheat is grown.

Daily Market Report

TRADING ON STOCK EXCHANGE LIGHT

New York, May 13.—The same factors or influences which have combined against constructive effort or bullish initiative in the stock market during the last few weeks were operative again today, although in less pronounced form. Trading was light and pressure of liquidation almost ceased after the early dealings.

Freight congestion, resulting from the railroad tieup in the Middle West continued to militate against any material revival of activity in the steel and iron trade.

Although heavy payments of interest are to be made to the government within the next few days, local banks again loaned freely of call money at 8 per cent, the rate later rising to 10 per cent.

In the stock market the same issues, namely, steels, motors, oils, textiles, leathers and shipping rose and fell within a moderate radius, losses of large fractions to a point predominating at the irregular to heavy close. Sales amounted to 765,000 shares.

While investment conditions continue unimproved, according to leading banking interests, the bond market again lost ground, all the Liberty issues weakening, with new low records in a majority of that group. International bonds were the only exception to the lower trend. Total sales (par value) aggregated 10,250,000.

Old U. S. bonds were unchanged.

MOON
MODERN MOTOR CARS
Speeding down the broad highway or drawn up to the curb in the conspicuous light of the theatre entrance, the Moon Sedan reflects your idea of what a custom-built car should be. Since Joseph W. Moon, out of a wealth of experience as a manufacturer of fine carriages, built the first Moon fourteen years ago, Moon design and coach work have set standards for motordom.
The Moon Sedan is a companion of luxury that fits into everyday use during all seasons.
There are the wide windows that close snugly and open easily. A foot-operated heater gives fire-side comfort on cold days. When warm rains or summer dust require closed protection, a ventilator adjustable from the inside keeps the interior cool with an abundance of fresh air.

SPRING EXHIBIT OF LOCAL PUBLIC SCHOOLS
The annual spring exhibit of the Jacksonville public schools will be held this evening and Saturday morning in the different buildings of the city. This evening the buildings will be open from 7:30 to 9:00 and Saturday morning from 9 to 12. The public is cordially invited.
These exhibits consist of objects, work done by the children in their regular school procedure. Maps, drawings, construction work, papers in arithmetic, language, geography, history, etc., all receive a limited space.
The idea of this exhibit is not that of show. It is rather to give parents and the public in general an opportunity of seeing some of the lines of work that have been accomplished by the children. While this exhibit is not in any way complete, it is quite representative of a number of various lines that receive attention in the public schools.
